

The Indigenous Community is calling for a four-day direct action non-violent civil disobedience movement for mother earth and against corporate wars over oil. This direct action will begin on 9-11-2011 and will culminate four days later. The indigenous ask that you observe a boycott on driving beginning on Sunday the 11th. Monday the 12th will be a back to work day - without your car, and Tues and Wed. will be the same. The Mohawk Nation will be shutting down Canada in support of this action. This four-day prayer and direct action is being spearheaded by Zachary Running Wolf and supported by the law office of Tony Serra.
